 - c. Determine whether any candidate is unopposed. If there are unopposed candidates, the board may declare the candidates elected and certify in writing by resolution (Attachment 7) that the candidates are unopposed⁶. If there is more than one director position for which unopposed candidates are declared elected and the terms are not for equal duration of service, those unopposed candidates will draw lots under the direction of the presiding director to determine who will fill each position. The resolution will specify which candidates have been declared elected for each position. An election will not be held for the unopposed candidates. The Board will direct that the resolution be posted at the Corporation's main office as soon as practical. The resolution also will be read into the record at the annual meeting.

Note: If an election is still necessary after any unopposed candidate has been declared elected as stated above, the ballot must also include the names of the unopposed candidate(s) who have been declared elected under the heading "Unopposed Candidates Declared Elected" along with the opposed candidates, e.g. Director Position for District 1 was unopposed, however District 2 has two candidates running for this position.
 - d. If the board fails to pass a resolution of unopposed candidates, the election shall proceed with the unopposed candidates on the ballot.

Note: Texas Water Code Sec. 67.0055 specifies that a person may not, by intimidation or by means of coercion, influence or attempt to influence a person to withdraw as a candidate or not to file an application for a place on the ballot so that an election may be canceled.

If the Corporation allows for renters to be members, the Corporation shall send the packet to the renter who is a member.

If the election is unopposed, the Corporation is still required to send out a meeting notice; however, the notice may be included with a utility bill.

8. Voting. A member is entitled to only one vote regardless of the number of memberships the member owns. A member may be a natural person; a partnership of two or more persons having a joint or common interest, including a married couple who jointly own property; or a Corporation. The system shall use a secured ballot box with a lock on it as the depository of the ballots. The Secretary/Treasurer shall keep the key to the box unless the Secretary/Treasurer is running for re-election, in which case the board shall appoint another officer. If all officers are running for re-election the board will appoint a director or the General Manager/Manager.

a. Voting in Advance of the Annual Meeting

- 1) Members attending the annual meeting will check in with the Independent Election Auditor who will verify whether the member has already submitted a ballot.
- 2) The Independent Election Auditor will provide an official ballot to those members who are voting at the annual meeting. The ballots will be printed on a different color paper or contain a special marking such as a distinct watermark to distinguish them from the ballots sent in advance of the meeting.
- 3) If a member attends the annual meeting but has already submitted a ballot, the member may participate in the meeting but may not change their vote or submit another ballot.

9. Open Meetings Act Notice. The Corporation also will post the Agenda of the Members Meeting in accordance with the Open Meetings Act at least 72 hours in advance of any member meeting (see attachment #3). If the board plans to hold a board meeting on adjournment of the annual meeting, a separate notice of that meeting also must be posted.

10. Conducting the Annual Meeting. The presiding director will conduct the annual members meeting in accordance with the noticed meeting agenda.

11. Quorum Requirement. At the commencement of the annual meeting, the presiding director will make a last call for the submission of ballots. The presiding director will report the total number of members who are present, which includes those members who mailed or delivered ballots prior to the meeting, for the purpose of establishing a quorum. Upon establishing a quorum, the presiding director will announce that a quorum of the membership is present and that the meeting [and election] may proceed.⁹

12. Counting the Ballots. Upon the last call for ballots the Independent Election Auditor will count the number of ballots received by mail or in person delivery to the Corporation or Independent Election Auditor and the number of ballots cast at the meeting and report the total number to the presiding officer to establish a quorum. Once the quorum has been established the Independent Election Auditor may begin to open the ballot envelopes cast in advance and place those ballots with the ballots cast at the meeting. The envelopes will be kept separately in a secured location. The Independent Election Auditor will count all the ballots at the meeting prior to adjournment and will provide the board with a written report of the election results¹⁰ (see attachment #9).

The Independent Election Auditor may enlist the assistance of members or other individuals to count ballots and to assist with other duties. Individuals assisting the Independent Election Auditor may not be an employee of the Corporation, a current director or candidate, a family member of a director running for election, a candidate, or an independent contractor engaged by the Corporation as part of the Corporation's regular course of business.

- If there is more than one director position to be filled and the terms are not for equal duration of service, those candidates receiving the greater number of votes will fill the positions with the longer terms.
- If two or more candidates for a director's position tie for the highest number of votes, those candidates will draw lots under the direction of the Independent Election Auditor to determine who is elected.
- If there is a tie vote on an issue other than a director election, the measure fails.

⁹ See T.W.C. Sec. 67.007(a-1). A quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of the members or shareholders is a majority of the members and shareholders present.
